

MLD Success for League Impact

OUR TAKAWAY

What an amazing team with amazing impact!

In short, coaching helps team members improve what they do, helps make them independent, and brings forth sources of creativity and energy. That makes the entire organization smarter and more effective. It's a win-win-win situation.

“The Benefits of Coaching” by Eric Yaverbaum & Erik Sherman

MLD Fact

MLD is not a top-down approach. It is a framework of best practices for state and local Leagues to embrace in a way that helps them succeed in building their capacity.

One-size does not fit all.

MLD Fact

State board engagement and ownership is critical to the success of the MLD.

Strong state impact and League growth are fostered by a strong MLD.

STRONG

What does strong state ownership look like in a state?

- What are the inputs?
- What are the outcomes?
- How does your state rate?

MLD Fact

The stronger the relationship between the Shur Fellow and those in the state, the greater the impact.

What's needed for...

The state to feel empowered to define what path to capacity building will work for them.

- What is the role of the LWVUS board liaisons and others?
- What's the role for Shur Fellows in this?
- What's the role of the state coaches?

What's needed for...

Strong Relationships

- With state coaches?
 - With state coordinators?
 - With others outside of the MLD program?
- Leadership changes this spring.

What's needed for...

Strong state ownership

This weekend...

- Questions?
- Comments?
- Feedback?

In your states....

Journal some specific action steps.