

Intersectionality

- The interaction between different aspects of our identities
- How people experience advantages or disadvantages in society depends on their identities
- Our identities—race, class, sexuality, age—form our experiences, and we each can experience privilege and oppression simultaneously