

News Clip: Women show up big at the polls during early votin...

Early voting is very much underway here in Palm Beach County and one thing is for certain, with each voter comes a lot of passion. The votes are coming in at the Palm Beach County tabulation center. As the ballots are counted, voters hope their voices stick and tells everybody go out there and vote peeling back the layers behind the vote. At the drop box, this means we either win or lose for the first time in my life. I feel personally like this is going to impact we're starting to get a look at voting here in Florida. According to NBC News, women are showing up in fact, when it comes to mail in ballots and early voting 54% are from women. There's a different feeling voting this year than I've ever felt. Some women say I think it's very important for women to come out. It's personal. This is the first time

I'm afraid this go around. Why are you so passionate about voting?

Because they just took our rights away. And were the first domino to fall. I would hope that in light of some changes that have happened in this past year that women are speaking a little louder. With their vote this year. It's important for everybody to vote Kathy Gunn Larrivee Wade had a big heart in it with the Palm Beach County Chapter of the League of Women Voters the cost of living has gone up. Climate change especially in Florida when we see what happened on the West Coast says women have reasons to vote. I don't think the economy trumps everything for everybody. I think women are very concerned about not having control of their bodies and control of their lives. She makes a final push for females like it's nonpartisan. We do not support any candidates. We do not support any parties. We want you to vote you know, we fought hard to get our right to vote and we want women to make sure that they follow up. I wanted to make sure I came into the game. We're done in WP TV NewsChannel five ECNL
