Application Questions

13. The Nominating Committee is responsible for designing and executing processes that result in a highly qualified and diverse slate of Board and Nominating Committee nominees. League membership relies on the nominating committee to "recruit and hire" excellent Board members. Describe your most successful hiring process. We are interested in hearing about your experiences with a League, another organization's nominating committee, or in a professional workplace setting.

What made the process successful, and what was your specific role? What would you do differently if given the opportunity? If you do not have hiring or sourcing experience, please describe the skills do you think will make you effective in this work. *

14. As the League enters its second century, the organization is continuing to transform itself as outlined in its Transformation Journey.

Please provide an example of your experience in recruiting or developing the leadership of an organization during transformational change. If you do not have experience in this area, please explain your interest in recruiting or developing leadership to support this change.

What skills or experience would you add to the process? *

15. How will you embrace the principles of diversity, equity and inclusion as you approach your work as a member of the nominating committee? *

16. The League's mission is empowering voters and defending democracy. Please give an example either as a member of the League or of another organization, where you have demonstrated your commitment to empowering voters and defending democracy. *
