Mr.

0:01

Speaker, I rise today to honor my constituent, Dr.

0:06

Sonia Chaudhary Irwin, a trailblazing civic leader from Glen Allen, devoted to engaging and strengthening her community and our democracy.

0:17

A respected leader, she works to address the important issues in our country such as healthcare, education, immigration, press freedom and the impact of money and politics, and so much more.

0:29

As the Vice President of the League of Women Voters of the United States, Sonia works to inform constituents, empower voters, and defend our democracy across the country and Illinois Third Congressional District.

0:42

She also leads nonpartisan initiatives to increase voter participation, ensuring that our local communities make their voices heard.

0:51

As the Co founder of One Community, Dr.

0:54

Irwin works to advance social justice initiatives in DuPage County, focusing on programs and actions that build community.

1:02

Her efforts and her advocacy have resulted in the formation of Community Relations Commission, in which she serves as a chair, spearheading policies, initiatives, and resources that create a more equitable and more inclusive society for all.

1:17

On behalf of Illinois Third Congressional District, I commend Dr.

1:22

Irwin for her inspiring leadership, her commitment to justice, and her unwavering service to our community and to our nation.

1:30

Thank you, Doctor Irwin.
