UUs living in DC need our help! They are asking for our help. Will you show solidarity?

DC residents require our help getting Congress to stop being a threat and obstacle to local autonomy and DC Home Rule. Instead, Congress should be in solidarity with DC communities and support actions that preserve or expand DC's local power. If that requires DC Statehood, that is fine.

UUSJ is working in collaboration with the Reeb Voting Rights Project, All Souls Church, Unitarian in Washington, D.C., and the League of Women Voters of Washington, D.C. to advocate for support of D.C. Home Rule and D.C. Statehood. If you take these actions, your contact information may be shared among these partners.
